THURSDAY, October 2, 1760.

NEW-YORK, September 22.

Proceedings of the Army under General AMHERST, from the Time they embarked at Oſwego (on the 10*th of Auguſt) to the happy Reduction of* MONTREAL, the 8*th of September following, viz.*

THAT, arriving the firſt Night after they ſet off, at the River Sable, they continued there till Noon the next Day, when they puſhed forward and got to the River l'Aſſomption; thence they proceeded to Bay Niora, from thence to Iſle Cauchon, Iſle Cheverill, and on the 16th landed on Point Auberie. At 11 this Night (the French Brig lying about 15 Miles off) Colonel Williamſon, and the five Row Gallies, together with the Grenadiers and Light Infantry, were diſpatched to take her, which they did at Eight in the Morning of the 17th, after a ſmart Fire: In this Affair we loſt a Serjeant of Artillery, and two private Men; the French had 3 killed, and 12 wounded; and we took 100 Priſoners. The Brig mounted Twelve 14 Pounders. Embarking from this Point, we arrived at Oſwegatchie, and encamped on a Hill to the Eaſtward of the Fort, where we remained till the 18th, when we rowed down towards Iſle-Royale. Here our new acquired Brig anchored within Cannon Shot of the Enemy's Battery, when a Cannonading began; and while they were thus employed, our Light Infantry and Grenadiers got below the Fort. At Noon, a Party was ordered to cut a Road to the Point on the Eaſtern Shore, which is about 700 Yards from the Fort. At Five o'Clock this Day, Commodore Lorring, and our two other Veſſels, went down to aſſiſt the Prize, where they amuſed the Enemy, while our Works were going on, on the Weſtern Side; 20th of Auguſt, at Day-break, a Captain and 2 Subalterns from each Regiment, and 160 Men, went to make Faſcines. At Noon, Colonel Murray, 6 Captains, 6 Subalterns, and 300 Privates, went to take Poſt at the Eaſt Side of the River, below the Fort; and the Faſcines being got ready, a Battery was erected. The Enemy continuing their Cannonade, our Ships hauled off from their Battery, it blowing hard, and very rainy.

At 12 on Friday the 22d, we marched below the Fort, and our Rear joined us in their Boats between Twelve and One in the Morning of Saturday.

The 23d, at Day-break, our Batteries began to fire. At Ten our Veſſels were ordered down: Capt. Phips, in the Mohawk, led, and ran cloſe along Side the Fort, where he brought to, with a Spring on his Cable, and kept up an inceſſant Fire of Great Guns, and Small Arms, which ſilenced the Enemy much; but their Shot at length cut the Cable of the Mohawk, who drove down with the Stream, and being much damaged, and in Want of her Anchor, was forced to run a-ground. Our Men in this Affair behaved extremely well. Commodore Lorring, in the Onondago, and Captain Sinclair, in the Williamſon (the French Brig that was) bore down between 10 and 11, but too late to aſſiſt the Mohawk; however, they ran cloſe to the Fort, poured in their Broadſides, and Small Arms from the Tops; our Batteries going at the ſame Time, and the Enemy not idle with their Artillery and Muſquetry, made very pretty Muſic. At Three o'Clock, Captain Sinclair's Brig being diſabled, was obliged to fall below the Fort, and the Commodore getting a-ground cloſe to it, was ſunk by the Enemy, whoſe Fire raked him, and diſmounted his Guns. In this Condition he was obliged to ſurrender, being wounded withal, and the French attempted ſeveral Times to go on board to hoiſt a White Flag, and carry our People on Shore; but they were as often diſappointed, for our Battery Guns drove their Boats into the Air, while their Crews went to the Bottom. At Six o'Clock, Lieut. Penning, with a Party of Grenadiers, in two Whale-Boats, ſet off from the Grand Battery, and proceeding through a Fire of Grape Shot and Small Arms, as thick as Hail, got ſafe on board the Onondago, and hoiſted the Engliſh Colours, but, to his Misfortune, found her full of Water. In this Exploit he loſt ſix Grenadiers, and had ſeveral wounded. Our Ships being entirely diſabled, our Mortars and Haubitzers played all the Night following, every Shell falling within the Iſland, which though ſmall, was extremely well fortified all round, to the Water's Edge, and commanded by M. Pauſheau. We have had Abundance of Rain lately.

Sunday, Auguſt 24. All our Mortars continued playing very ſmart: No Likelihood of recovering the Commodore's Ship. The Mohawk was moſt horribly torn.

Auguſt 25. All Night our Mortars played. Another new Battery, which was begun Yeſterday, will be ready to open To-night; and our two Veſſels are getting ready with all Expedition, to go up and cover the Boats intended for a general Storm To-morrow. The Enemy kept a briſk Fire Yeſterday, and this Morning. About 4 P. M. the French beat a Parley, and at Seven our Grenadiers took Poſſeſſion. The Enemy had about 80 killed and wounded; and we had near 50 killed and wounded. The 26th and 27th, employed in deſtroying our Batteries, and repairing the Damages of the Fort.

28th. Still employed in repairing the Fort, and endeavouring to weigh the Onondago, and moved our Camp to Abbey Picquets Iſland.

29th. Employed as before.

30th. This Day arrived a Party of French Indians, who report General Murray's being near Montreal, with a large Fleet of Frigates.

31ſt. Set off from Abbey Picquets Iſland, and proceeded down the River for Montreal. The Stream this Day was pretty ſtrong. We landed at Eve, and waited till September 1ſt, when we put off again, and paſſed the Rapids, or Long Falls, and encamped 3 Leagues from Lake St. Francis.

Tueſday, September 2. Received Orders, in caſe of an Attack, to land, and charge any Enemy that preſented themſelves to us, and the Party ſo landing, to make an obſtinate Reſiſtance, as they might depend on being ſupported.

September 3d. Being bad Weather, lay by all Day.

September 4th. Set off, and croſſed Lake St. Francis, and about 11 o'Clock arrived at the Town of Gaſpey. Here we paſſed large Falls, and loſt an Officer and 85 Men, at Bloody Point, and a great Number of Boats. About 2 o'Clock we paſſed the Cedar-Town, and at 11 at Night landed on L'Iſle Perrot, cloſe to Montreal Iſle. The Country very thick ſettled. This Iſland has 500 Families on it.

September 5. Lay by all Day to repair our Damages. Great Numbers of the Inhabitants took the Oaths of Allegiance, and are put in peaceable Poſſeſſion of their Farms. No Soldier to plunder on Pain of Death. The Indians Yeſterday took near 400 Priſoners off the Iſland of Montreal; and the Indian Sachem, who commanded the Party, told them, that tho' they were in their Power, they had Orders from the Engliſh General not to kill any of them, but carry them to their Farms, adding that the French uſed to bid them kill all. On this Occaſion the Indians killed but one Man, who attempted to run away.

About 5 o'Clock this Day (September 5) Lieutenant Elliott arrived from Col. Haviland, with an Account of L'Iſle Soreile being taken; and at 7 o'Clock Lieutenant Crofton arrived from General Murray, when Orders were given out to embark at Day-break. 6th of September the General beat at Day, and the General himſelf embarked Half an Hour after, the Army rowing by the right four Columns. At 11 o'Clock we landed on the Iſland of Montreal (nine Miles from Town) fixed our Bayonets, and formed: We marched directly for the Town, along a moſt delightful Road, very thick inhabited. About 4 o'Clock we arrived before the Walls of the Town, where we formed in Battle Array, expecting General Levy, with his Army, to come out. Some Skirmiſhes happened between the Enemy's Troop of Horſe, and our Light Infantry. We lay on our Arms all Night, getting our Cannon up.

September 7. Were poſted in proper Columns. This Day we learned that Monſieur Levy's Regulars were on an Iſland the other Side of the Town, to prevent Mr. Murray's landing. About eight o'Clock a Flag of Truce came from the City, demanding a Suſpenſion of Arms till they ſhould hear from France; but the Anſwer they got was, They ſhould have till 12 o'Clock to conſider; and accordingly they began to capitulate. We lay upon our Arms all Night.

September 8th. General Murray's Army landed, and the General, and ſeveral of his Officers, came to our Camp. About the ſame Time arrived at our Camp, Major Chriſtie, from Col. Haviland's Army. The Capitulation being finiſhed, the Grenadiers and Light Infantry marched into the Town, commanded by Col. Haldiman, in the following Order of Proceſſion, viz.

I. A Twelve-pounder with a Flag; and a Detachment of Royal Artillery.

II. The Grenadiers of the Line, commanded by Col. Maſſie.

III. The Light Infantry of the Line, commanded by Col. Amherſt, each with a Band of Muſic before them. And the eldeſt Enſign in General Amherſt's Army to take Poſſeſſion of the Colours of the eight French Regiments.

September 9th, 1760. Camp before Montreal. The Colours of Shirley's and Pepperell's Regiments, loſt at Oſwego (in 1756) was marched out of Montreal by a Detachment of Grenadiers, and a Band of Muſic; and carried down the Right of our Line, to Head Quarters, where they were lodged.

General Orders; Camp before Montreal, September 9, 1760.

Parole,——King GEORGE, and—CANADA.

THE General ſees, with infinite Pleaſure, the Succeſs that has crowned the indefatigable Efforts of his Majeſty's Troops, and faithful Subjects in America. The Marquis de Vaudreuille has capitulated; the Troops of France, in Canada, have laid down their Arms, and are not to ſerve during the War; the whole Country ſubmits to the Dominion of GREAT-BRITAIN. The three Armies are intitled to the General's Thanks, on this Occaſion; and he aſſures them, that he will take the firſt Opportunity of acquainting his Majeſty with the Zeal and Bravery, which has always been exerted by the Officers and Soldiers of the Regulars, and Provincial Troops, and alſo by his faithful Indian Allies.

The General is confident, when the Troops are informed that this Country is the King's, they will not diſgrace themſelves by the leaſt Appearance of Inhumanity, or by unſoldier-like Behaviour, in taking any Plunder, more eſpecially as the Canadians become now Britiſh Subjects, and will feel the good Effects of HIS MAJESTY's PROTECTION.

Saturday laſt Major M'Clean arrived here from Montreal, which Place he left the 13th Inſtant, in full Poſſeſſion of General AMHERST, and the Army under his Command.

Beſides the Contents of the above Journal, we are told, that as ſoon as the Army commanded by General Amherſt landed on the Iſland of Montreal, moſt of the Peaſants laid down their Arms, and left Monſieur Vaudreuille and Levy to obtain the beſt Terms they could for them; that our Indians, under the Command of Sir William Johnſon, behaved ſo well, that they were looked upon to be
